

On the THIRD (3rd) Shabbat of the month, Cantor Jan Mahler leads a CONTEMPLATIVE MINYAN.

This service begins with P'sukei d'zimrah and moves into Shacharit incorporating lots of singing: songs of the liturgy as well as nigunim (songs without words).

People of all levels of Hebrew and Jewish background are welcome. English transliteration of some prayers are provided and time for study and reflection is woven into the 90 minutes we spend together.

IT does not include musaf which participants are encouraged to do on their own at some other time during the afternoon.

The service meets in the Library at 10:30 a.m.
