

NEW MEMBER INITIATIVE LOWERS THE COST OF BETH HILLEL CONGREGATION BNAI EMUNAH MEMBERSHIP TO $180

We are offering a limited number of new member families affiliation at a subsidized rate of only $180, in recognition of the current economic pressures. Underwritten by BHCBE members, this exciting membership stimulus program is limited to the first 20 families who join and enroll at least one child in the Academy. If you are a member, this is the perfect time to recruit your friends or family to join.

This unique opportunity allows those who join under the program to maintain the $180 dues structure for up to two years. The program is intended specifically to support young families, who enroll at least one K through 7th-grade child in the Academy. The only other requirement is that the family is responsible for all regular Academy dues and fees.

The three-day per week Academy strives to actively engage and inspire students through a quality egalitarian Conservative Jewish educational experience, open to both tradition and innovation. Curriculum focuses on skills for synagogue and home life, Hebrew language, Bible and Jewish history, and the challenges, joys, and responsibilities of living as a Jew today.

According to congregation president Jonathan Lehrer, "BHCBE is a synagogue where committed donors have come together to make it possible for young Jewish families to have a complete religious experience at an affordable level. We are a community, and this is how a community behaves."

Those interested in learning more about this opportunity are encouraged to act soon, as the program is expected to fill quickly. Participation is limited to first-time BHCBE new members only, who meet the Academy enrollment requirements.
